Pastor's Note(s):

Hello everyone! My name is Father Steven Laflamme and I am the new pastor of Holy Spirit parish in Two Harbors and St. Mary's parish in Silver Bay. I am very excited to be here and to have the opportunity to serve you all. I was born and raised in the West End of Duluth and graduated from Denfeld High School in 2001. I then entered college seminary at St. John Vianney College Seminary at the University of St. Thomas. After four years there, I entered St. Meinrad Seminary in Southern Indiana for major seminary. I was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Duluth in June of 2009. I spent my first three years of priesthood in Brainerd as the associate pastor of Brainerd Area Catholic Churches. In the spring of 2012, Bishop Sirba asked me to go back to school to attain a licentiate (degree) in canon law. So I have spent the last three years going to school at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. during the school-year, and back home during the summer months filling in on the weekends at various parishes throughout the diocese. I can certainly say that I am so excited to be back home in the North Country for good! I wish to thank Fr. Michael for his many years of dedicated service to your parishes, and also for his kindness in helping me "learn the ropes" during this transition. I feel truly blessed to be here with you and I look forward to meeting with you, praying with you and ministering to you. God bless you and be with you!

-Fr. Steve Laflamme

Sunday Scriptures: Those involved in any kind of ministry can, over time, grow tired, given the scope of those who need ministering to and the amount of time given to doing this. We need to go to an out-of-the-way place, as Jesus did with his disciples. In order to continue in our ministry, we need to renew our strength, spiritual and emotional, so that we might continue with hearts full of compassion to reach out to those who seek Christ. When was the last time you went on a retreat of any kind? Perhaps the summer months would offer you the opportunity to let the Lord shepherd you along restful waters, refreshing your soul.
