30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

REPAY GOD: "LOVE GOD AND NEIGHBOR: "Love God wholeheartedly and love your neighbor as yourself" is how Jesus sums up the whole law and the prophets. These vertical and horizontal loves are imaged in the cross of Christ Jesus, which binds all creation together and leads all creation to God. We receive the cross in baptism as a sign that we are servants of the living God who raised his son, Jesus, from the dead so that Jesus might save us from sin and retribution. How do you bear your baptismal cross before humankind and before God?

Pastor's Note(s):

All Saints and All Souls! All Saints November 1, a Holy Day, falls on Saturday this year. Although Catholics are not obliged to participate in Mass on that day, as it falls next to Sunday, it is still a Holy Day and deserves its own proper Mass. Accordingly, I will have a Mass for All Saints at 9.00 am for those who may wish to participate. Participation does not however excuse one from attending one of the weekend Masses as usual. This year those Masses will be offered in Commemoration of All Souls and will have their own special Readings and Prayers.

Called to Conversion: This is a final call to anyone who hopes to be received into full union with the Catholic Church during the Easter Vigil. If you are interested in doing so, or if you know someone who is, please let me know immediately so that adequate preparation can be made. Call 834-4313

Catholic TV Network: America's Catholic Television Network is now available to cable and satellite providers in our area. Please help provide this upbeat, youthful and exciting resource to the people of our area. To help, simply visit GetCatholicTV.com as an easy way to petition your cable or satellite provider. If you are unable to access the internet, please follow up with a postcard or letter to your provider. Thank You!

Thought for the Week: "The greatest honor we can give Almighty God," said the English mystic Juliana of Norwich (1342-1416),"is to live gladly because of the knowledge of his love."

With every blessing! Fr. Michael
